Assault

29 year old Tanisha Ozuna, who was charged with First Degree Assault with a Firearm in connection with a pistol whipping incident, has been released on personal recognizance bail.

“This woman’s alleged actions are bold and brazen, and extremely violent,” says Chief Allen Aldenberg. “This behavior is alarming and for Ms Ozuna to be released on PR bail is incomprehensible.”

On February 7, 2022 at approximately 9:40 AM, Manchester Police responded to a Somerville St address for a report of an assault.

The victim told police that a woman she knew had forced her way into her apartment and hit her in the head with a gun. The woman was holding a young child at the time of the assault. While the child was not hurt, the woman suffered multiple injuries to her head.

The woman was identified as Ozuna and a warrant was issued for her arrest. Ozuna was taken into custody and charged with First Degree Assault with a Firearm, Reckless Conduct, Criminal Threatening, and Burglary.

“I believe releasing Ms Ozuna on PR sends not only the wrong message, but puts the community in danger,” says Aldenberg.
